Re: Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc.'s January 25, 2019, Demand for Payment

Dear Mr. Osborne:

I am writing in response to your January 25, 2019 demand for payment, which was made to Caliber Home Loans based on a Broker Agreement reached with First Priority Financial, Inc. Specifically, I am writing on behalf of First Priority Financial, and to ensure Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (LBHI) understands that First Priority Financial, Inc. was not acquired by Caliber Home Loans. Please direct any and all future communication on this matter to my attention.

As stated, Caliber Home Loans is not a successor in interest to First Priority Financial, Inc. Enclosed as Exhibit 1 is a copy of the Secretary of State information for First Priority Financial, Inc., which confirms the same. With respect to the demand for payment, First Priority Financial was party to a Broker Agreement with LBHI. Contrary to the demand for payment, the Broker Agreement did not make First Priority Financial strictly liable for failed loans.

Finally, as you know, First Priority Financial, Inc. settled a dispute in 2014 for these type of claims for approximately $9,000. If LBHI would like to further discuss this matter and the loans, or schedule a mediation, please provide the loan documentation referred to in the demand for payment, including: loan applications, broker agreements, and documentation relating to losses on the alleged loans.

Thank you for your cooperation and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

PATTON SULLIVAN BRODEHL LLP
